The names of the Knights Counties, Citizens, Burgesses for the Burroughs, and Barrons for the Ports for the house of Commons at the Parliament summoned and begun at the place and day before mentioned.

The names of the like that came and were summoned to the Parliament at the place aforesaid, the 16. day of Ianuary, in the 18. yeare of the Kings Maiesties Reigne that now is, and from thence prorogued vntill the 23. and then vntill the 30. day of the same moneth.

Obseruations for the Reader.

England containeth Counties 40
Wales. 14

THe Knights of the Counties, Citizens, Burgesses for the Burroughs, and Barons for the Ports are 476

Of those that were chosen the last præcedent Parliament, there are new elected againe. 353

The first Colume containeth the names of the Knights for the Counties and Burgesses for the Burroughes for this now present Parliament assembled.

The second Colume containeth the names of those that were elected or the last præcedent Parliament.

Against those names where the figure of one is placed are such as are now come in, and were not of the last Parliament.

Against those names where the figure of two is placed, are such as haue beene chosen for both Parliaments.

Against those names where is a Cypher, is placed in the second Colum, are such as were onely of the last, & not of this present Parliament.

Where there is a line drawne from the names of any in the first Colume to any place blancke in the second Colume, there they are to bee written as seruing there the last precedent Parliament.

Where a hand is neere the name of any in the first Colum, sheweth hee likewise serued for the last præcedent Parliament, and is to stand in the blancke of the second Colume where a Starre is placed; all which I haue so noted to auoyde double writing their names.
